December 2011

H.M. QUEEN ELIZABETH II'S DIAMOND JUBILEE

To mark 60 years of the Queen's reign, the Diamond Jubilee will take place in 2012 over an extended weekend between Saturday 2nd and Tuesday 5th June.

Consequently, for 2012, the Spring Time Bank Holiday will be moved from its customary place at the end of May to Monday 4th June, whilst an additional holiday has been granted on Tuesday 5th June.

In response to this, the National Board has determined for 2012 that:

Monday 28th May will be treated as a normal working day.

Monday 4th June will be treated as the Spring Time Bank Holiday for the purposes of National Working Rule 12.1 and payment for working on that day will be in accordance with National Working Rule 12.2.

Tuesday 5th June will be a holiday paid at a flat rate of 7.5 hours. Operatives who are required to work on the 5th June shall be paid as for a normal working day and receive an alternative paid day off in lieu at a date mutually agreed with the Employer. This day in lieu will be paid at 7.5 hours and must be taken by 31st December 2012.

To qualify for payment for 4th and 5th June, operatives will be required to work normal days on Friday 1st June and Wednesday 6th June.
